NOVEMBER'S TRAIT IS GRATEFULNESS

COUNSELOR'S CORNER

Teaching Young Children About Gratitude

Our Character Education curriculum continues to embrace the whole child and challenge students to work towards their best selves. Research shows gratitude isn't just a pleasant feeling—being grateful can also support greater health, happiness, and wisdom in ourselves and our communities. Here are some tips from First Things First, gathered from child development experts and websites:

1. Teach them to say thank you to the people who do things for them. That can be a brother or sister who helps them pick up toys, or a friend who gives them a birthday gift.
2. Tell your kids why you are grateful for them. Be specific in letting your children know they are special and loved. For example: 'I appreciate the way you help your brother tie his shoes.'
3. Talk about the things you are grateful for. This can be done in many ways, from a blessing before dinner to keeping a family gratitude journal.
4. Support a charitable event or organization. Whether you are donating clothes or toys, participating in a food drive, or baking cookies for a new neighbor, talk to children about what those actions mean to those who receive the kindness.

Research shows that thankful people are usually more optimistic. They're also less depressed and stressed. So, when we teach our children to appreciate what they have, and what others do for them, we are helping them become happier, healthier adults.

REMINDERS & UPDATES:

- ARRIVAL PROCEDURES: As the weather continues to get a little colder and the mornings get a little darker, it is important to remember that car-riders should ONLY enter through the car-line, and walkers should ONLY enter where our Safety Officers are on West Woodlawn & Bunting Drive. There is not adequate lighting or staffing in other areas to ensure your student's safety. Additionally, students who skip the car-line and are dropped off at the office will receive tardy slips and parents will be contacted so that this does not reoccur. Finally, we want to remind you students may not enter the school until after 7am when teachers arrive. Thank you for helping us keep our students safe and for following our arrival procedures.
- STUDENT BIRTHDAYS: If your child has a birthday, you may either drop off a treat (cupcakes and donuts recommended) or bring it during their lunch. We cannot accept any type of party favors (balloons, treat bags, drinks, flowers, etc) or interrupt instructional time. Also, we do not pass out birthday party invitations unless it is to be distributed to the entire class. While we love and welcome visitors and volunteers at HHE, maximizing instructional time is of upmost importance.
- PURPLE UP: November is the month of the Military Family
