VISION

Our Schofield family will create reflective scholars by cultivating global perspectives, tailored opportunities, positive relationships, and cultural awareness

MISSION

Global Perspectives:

We will cultivate global perspectives by implementing the Cambridge attributes, fostering cross-curricular instruction, integrating fine arts and designing curriculum and instruction with a global focus.

Tailored Learning Opportunities:

We will intentionally design tailored learning opportunities through smallgroup instruction, personalized learning, technology incorporation, and purposeful interventions based upon formative assessment data.

Positive Relationships:

We will establish and maintain positive stakeholder relationships by fostering positive communication and involvement, implementing restorative practices and valuing student ownership of positive learner attributes.

Cultural Awareness:

We will promote cultural awareness through a comprehensive plan of professional learning that addresses responsive pedagogy, incorporates relevant instructional strategies, and serves the needs of the Schofield Family.
