

ACPSD's World Language Brag Blog

Volume 1, Issue 1
November 2023

Julio Avila- NAHS Teacher of the Year 2023!!!

Felicidades, Maestro!
Well deserved!

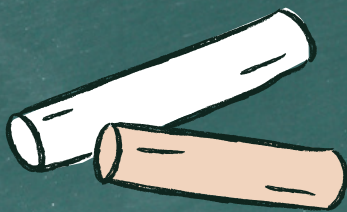

North Augusta High School ·
Following

2d · 🌐

A huge CONGRATULATIONS to:

Teacher of the Year, Julia Avila
Giving Even More, Katherine Barrett
1st Year Teacher of the Year, Richard Wilson.

We are so grateful and proud to have you represent our school!!

Announcements

This is the first issue of Aiken County's World Language Brag Blog, a space where you can brag on your students or your colleagues or you can share the rich learning that is taking place in our schools!

Use this form to share:

engaging instructional strategies

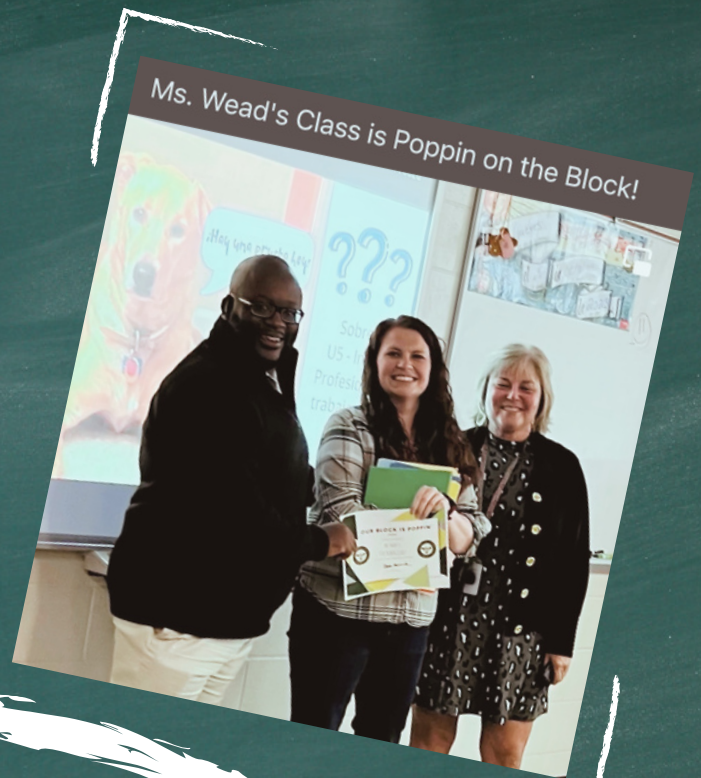

teacher and student recognition

hands on cultural activities

Poppin' on the Block

Ms. Wead's class was presented with lollipops for her 4th period class being completely engaged in their learning activity! What a great way to recognize student effort and excellent instructional planning!

Check out these Cultural events offered through Aiken High's Spanish and German clubs <--German Club made their own gummy bears in September.

Spanish Club made their own tortillas. -->

Consider sharing learning activities where students were highly engaged with your content. Please share the Course, the unit, and the standards,

Check out Instructional Technology's monthly newsletter Dash of Digital to learn more about ways to integrate technology into your instruction.

